[XXIVth. YEAR.] THE [No. 1200.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1768.

TOULON, May 26.

THE Regiment of Anhalt embarked the Day before Yesterday for Corsica. That of Medoc, sailed lately from Marseilles, for the same Place. The first Ships which went to that Island, are safely arrived there. Several other Merchant Ships are equipping, destined to take more Troops on board at Antibes, and carry them to Corsica.

WARSAW, June 4. Count Crecznitikow, a Russian General, hath published a Declaration, by which he warns the Magnates to abstain from all Correspondence with the Confederates of Barr, whom he treats as Rebels; adding, that in case of their acting a contrary Part, he would seize their Persons, or cause his Troops to live at Discretion on their Estates.

June 13. We just now learn, that Count Potocki obtained an Advantage over the Russians, on the 28th or 29th past, near Barr. The Confederates lost, at first, upwards of 1500 Men; but soon redoubling their Courage, they fell upon the Russians, Sword in Hand, and gained so greatly the Advantage, that the Loss of the Russians now exceeds theirs, by at least one Half.

We have received Advice, that the Russian Colonel Wiesman, after having defeated Count Potocki, pursued him into Moldavia, pretty far into the Territories of the Turks; that the Bashaw of the neighbouring Fortresses acquainted him, that he acted contrary to the Treaties which subsisted between Russia and the Ottoman Empire, by entering with an armed Force into the Provinces of the latter; that the Porte was already informed of it, and therefore he advised him not to advance any farther, otherwise he must expect to have Troops sent against him. The Colonel endeavoured to excuse himself, by alledging, that he was unacquainted with the Limits; nevertheless, we are not without Apprehensions for the Consequences of this Mistake; especially as the Turks suffered Count Potocki to pass into Moldavia, without any Opposition, by which Means he joined the Confederates of Barr, in the Neighbourhood of Kaminieck.

GENOA, June 4. The following are the Articles agreed on between France and this Republic, touching the Cession of Corsica.

I. The Republic of Genoa cedes the Kingdom of Corsica, together with its Fortresses, to France, the latter, paying in Money, for the Artillery and Warlike-Stores, according to the Valuation which shall be made of them.

II. The Sovereignty of that Island shall always remain vested in the Republic.

III. Every Person shall be preserved in his Effects, on proving the Right he has to them.

IV. The Corsicans shall be deemed Subjects of France, so long as the latter continues in Possession of that Isle.

V. France shall be obliged to maintain there 16 Battalions.

VI. France shall guarantee the Genoese Commerce against the Corsican and Barbary Cruisers.

VII. In case the Republic should be desirous of resuming again the Possession of that Kingdom, it shall repay to France, all the Charges that Crown shall have been at, by that Time; for which Purpose an exact Account shall be kept of all that the latter shall have advanced, and likewise of the Revenues it shall have collected.

VIII. The King shall bestow, in Property, on the Republic, the Sovereignty of the Island of Capraia. This Treaty contains besides, Three secret Articles.

LONDON.

June 14. It was Yesterday currently reported, in most of the Coffee-Houses in Town, that our Ambassador, at a neighbouring Court, was on the Point of Departure from thence, on Account of the Measures lately taken, and still persisted in, by that Court (notwithstanding our Ambassador's Remonstrances) for taking Possession of a certain Island in the Mediterranean.

June 18. Among other Proceedings, in regard to Mr. Wilkes, on Tuesday last, Mr. Serjeant Glynn took Notice, that as a Writ of Error, was intended to be brought before a higher Court of Justice, before the House of Lords, he desired that the Case of the Alteration of the Records, under such peculiar Circumstances, might be stated on the Back of the Record, to be transmitted to the Lords, otherwise that important Point could not come before the House. This was refused by the Court.

Mr. Wilkes again offered Bail, but was refused.

So soon as the British Squadron, intended for the Mediterranean, appears in those Seas, a spirited Requisition, relative to Corsica, demanding a categorical Answer, will be made by the British Court, at that of Versailles; our patriot Ministers being resolved, that the French Power, in the Mediterranean, shall not be increased, by the Acquisition of so valuable an Island.

A War is again talked of, by many of our Politicians, as utterly unavoidable.

We are told that large Bodies of the French Forces are ordered down to the Sea Coasts; a Circumstance which gives much Ground for political Speculation.

We are told that some Merchants of great Eminence, have a Plan to lay before the Government, which is likely to effect a happy Accommodation between the Mother-Country and the American Colonies.

This Morning, Mr. Wilkes received Judgment, at the Bar of the Court of King's-Bench, for republishing the North-Briton, No. 45, for which he was sentenced to pay a Fine of 500 l. and to suffer 10 Months Imprisonment; and also for publishing the Essay on Woman; for which he is to pay a Fine of 500 l. more, and to suffer 12 Months Imprisonment, in all 22 Months; and besides to find Security for his good Behaviour for Seven Years, himself bound in 1000 l. and Two Sureties, in 500 l. each.

They write from Hamburgh, that Two Thousand Tons of Naval, and Ordnance Stores, are now buying there, and at Altena, for the Service of France.

It is said a British Squadron will soon make its Appearance in the Bay of Biscay.

June 21. The King of Denmark is expected here about the Beginning of August next, and great Preparations will be made for his Majesty's Reception: It is thought that his Majesty will stay for One Month or Six Weeks.

Mr. Wilkes moved, on Saturday, in the Court of King's-Bench, for a Writ of Error, which was allowed; and desired that the Alteration of the Records, by Lord Mansfield, might be put in such a Form, as to come before the House of Lords, which was refused.

It is said that the Writ of Error for Mr. Wilkes, was signed on Saturday last, and it is expected to pass the Seal this Day.

We are informed that on Sunday last there were not fewer than 200 Coaches which brought Visitors to the King's-Bench Prison.

This Day both Houses of Parliament met, pursuant to their last Adjournment.

We hear that our Ambassador at a certain Court has been ordered to demand a categorical Answer with regard to the Designs of that Court on the Island of Corsica; and that, Contrary to all Expectation, instead of the Retort Courteous, he had received the Reply Valiant.

It is said the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Squadron, in the Mediterranean, has sent home an Express, containing some Dispatches of great Importance.

They write from Gibraltar, that a Rupture with the Emperor of Morocco was thought to be unavoidable.

This Morning a Number of Agents for the American Colonies, attended at Lord Hillsborough's Office, Whitehall, on Affairs relative to the commercial Interests of Great-Britain and the Plantations.

The Appointment of the Earl of Hillsborough to the Post of First Lord of Trade, is an Event much to the Satisfaction of those concerned in our Colonies, as well as to the Mother-Country in general; being universally acknowledged a judicious Choice in the Ministry, as that amiable Nobleman's Character and Abilities will add Lustre to their Recommendation; especially as there are now Two Schemes in Contemplation, which will be offered for Consideration of an august Assembly, particularly framed, on Purpose to remove those frequent Jealousies and Heart-burnings between our Colonies and the Mother-Country. The following, we are informed are the Outlines thereof.——In the First, it is proposed by Government, "to grant free Liberty to the North-Americans, to open and work their Mines (which it is well known, that fertile Country abounds with) on the same Plan and Conditions of those in Great-Britain. No Mines shall be deemed Royal. To permit a Coinage amongst themselves, instead of the present destructive Paper Currency. To repeal those Acts of Parliament which more immediately affect their Trade and Interest. In lieu of such Repeal, the North-Americans agree to raise a Sum of Money, equal to the present Duties now paid, by a Mode to be adopted by each separate Province after their own Manner, and applied towards maintaining a sufficient Number of the Military, for Garrisons, &c. the Overplus placed in the Nature of a Sinking Fund, for defraying the Debts and Incumbrances contracted by Government, for their Support in the last War. Secondly, if the former should be deemed impracticable, it is proposed, as an Equivalent for the Taxes now paid to Great-Britain (which appear to be ill calculated, and, impolitic) to take in kind, such raw Materials as each different Province produce; as Indico, green Myrtle-Wax, Rosin, Pitch, Tar, Tobacco; Timber of all kinds, such as Fir, fit for the Navy; Hemp, Flax, Iron, Black-Lead, Saltpetre (which is found in North-America) Gums, Hides, Furs, Fish or Train-Oil, Whalebone, Spermaceti; together with Silver, Copper, and Lead Ores, reduced into a Regulus only, from the Mines worked in the present Manner; all those various Articles taken at the European Market Price, fixed on by proper Persons appointed for such Purposes, by Government, at a small Stipend annually, allowing Freight &c. in the usual Manner." This Plan will greatly encourage the Culture of raw Materials in those Parts, prevent very considerable Sums from being sent to Russia, Norway, &c. and augment our Marine greatly, by finding Employ for Shipping, &c. The Revenues of this Department to be applied as the former.

June 23. Yesterday the Lords Commissioners, appointed by his Majesty, prorogued both Houses of Parliament to Thursday the 11th of August.

It is much talked, that almost a general Change will very shortly be made in the Ministry.

We are informed, that the Island of Corsica abounds in Harbours, not only capable of receiving a Fifty Gun Ship, but even the whole Navy of England; not to mention the numerous Bays, Gulfs, and Inlets, on every Side, as may be seen, by inspecting the Map of that Island, many of which, at little Expence, may be converted into the finest Ports in the Mediterranean. This is so well known to the French Ministry, that we are assured they have appointed proper Engineers to accompany the Troops from Marseilles and Toulon, to fortify them.

It is given out, that in a late grand Meeting, relative to the Affairs of Corsica, the Majority were of Opinion that those brave People ought to be vigorously assisted by us.

They write from Tunis, that a Fleet of Nine Zebecks of War, lately sailed from thence, to cruize against the Christian Powers in the Mediterranean.

When Mr. Serjeant Glynn pleaded on the Alteration of the Records, on the 15th Instant, we are informed that he concluded thus;

"My Lords, I have now done with my Client and his Cause; your Lordships will determine according to your Wisdom. But here let me intreat you, for the Sake of the Safety of every Subject of this Nation, that your Lordships will please to fix some Limits to the discretionary Power of altering Records; that we may know for the future, when we can be certain of the Cause we are to plead; and that the Subject may not be liable to Ruin, at the Discretion of a Judge."

It is rumoured at the West End of the Town, that a certain Person will soon receive a free Pardon.

June 25. A letter from Leghorn, dated June 3, advises, that the French have landed 9000 Troops on the Island of Corsica, and that General Paoli had issued Orders for all the Corsicans, from 16, to 60 Years of Age, that are able to bear Arms, to prepare to attack them; but these Letters say, that he is in great Want of Money, Artillery and Ammunition. They further observe, that if the French make themselves Masters of that Island, the Trade of Great-Britain, to the Mediterranean Sea will be lost in a future War.

It is strongly reported, that a new Error is discovered in certain late Proceedings against a popular Gentleman, sufficient of itself to set aside the last Part of the Judgment thereon founded; by which, if true, he may possibly take his Seat next April.

According to Letters from Constantinople, the Divan have for some Time past been somewhat disgusted at the Proceedings of the Russians in Poland.

They write from Leghorn, that the Court of Versailles had caused it to be intimated to General Paschal de Paoli, that the very first Attempt, on his Part, to obstruct the Landing of the French Troops on the Island, would be considered as a full Declaration of War.

June 28. We are informed, that their Majesties, who are desirous on every Occasion, to shew their Regard to the Interest of their Country, appeared at the Drawing-Room, Yesterday, in White and Silver. A laudable Example to the Court and their Servants, to promote the manufacturing Interest of this City.

The Report of the Day is, that one of the Royal Family will certainly pay a visit to North-America, this Summer, or early next Spring.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland will sail to the Mediterranean, in a few Days, in a Man of War, commanded by the Hon. Captain Barrington. His Royal Highness goes as a Midshipman, and we hear the Ship is stationed for Two Years.

We hear that the Manufacturers of Birmingham, and other Towns, subsisting chiefly by their Trade for Hard-Wares, are greatly alarmed on Account of the remarkable Decrease of Orders from America.

At a certain Church at the West End of the Town, Yesterday Se'nnight, when the Reader came to the following Passage in the Litany, "For all Prisoners and Captives;" one of the Congregation cried out, aloud, "especially for our old Friend John Wilkes Esq;"

There are no more than two Frigates of War actually fitting out for the Mediterranean, to join those already on that Station; the Preparations at Portsmouth and Plymouth, in over-hauling the Line of Battle Ships, are no more than usual at this Time of the Year.

It is given out, that a great Personage proposes to visit the Island of Corsica.

It is reported, that Orders have been given, to repair and strengthen the Fortifications of Minorca, and that a Regiment of Foot, on the Irish Establishment, will this Summer, be sent over to reinforce the Garrison there.

June 30. They write from Genoa, of the 28th Ult. that a Courrier arrived there that Day from Paris, with the Ratification of a Treaty concluded between France and that Republic.

The Republic of Genoa has sent Three Deputies to Bastia, to withdraw the Archieves and deliver the City, and whatever else the Genoese possess in Corsica, into the Hands of the French Commandant.

It is said, that the Question, How far the Americans may be permitted to engage British Artificers to quit the Kingdom? will be debated at the next Meeting of an august Assembly.

We hear that a Commission is preparing to pass the Great Seal, for appointing a new Board of Trade and Plantations.

An Express arrived in Town, Yesterday, from Paris, which we are informed, brought an Account of the Death of the Queen of France, Consort of Lewis XV. and Daughter of the late Stanislaus, King of Poland. Her Majesty was born June 23, 1703, and has left the following Issue by the present French King, viz. Elizabeth Dowager, Duchess of Parma, Princess Adelaide, Princess Victoria, and Two other Princesses.

It was this Morning currently reported on the Royal Exchange, that the French Court have actually threatened to attack Minorca, ſhould Great-Britain interfere with the French King's Deſigns upon Corſica.

They write from Paris, that an Expreſs had arrived there, with Advice that the landing of the French Troops in Corſica, had not been attended with the leaſt Oppoſition on the Part of the Iſlanders.

Letters from Gibraltar, mention, that the Emperor of Morocco's Ambaſſador, who lately arrived there, demanding the Payment of a large Sum of Money, had been obliged to return home, without receiving the leaſt Satisfaction to the inſolent Demands of his Maſter.

No material Changes or Alterations in the Miniſtry, will take Place, 'til the Parliament meets for Buſineſs, which is expected in November next.

Some very diſcerning Politicians pretend to have diſcovered that the French have taken Poſſeſſion of Corſica, with the Deſign of erecting it into a Monarchy for the Infant Duke of Parma, Grandſon of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty.

On the Arrival of his Daniſh Majeſty, in theſe Dominions, great Expectations are formed by the Politicians at the Weſt End of the Town; one Party aſſures us, this Tour of his Majeſty, is not merely to ſee the Country, but to ſet on Foot a new Commercial Treaty between the Two Nations, particularly regarding the preſent Trade of the Danes in the Weſt-Indies. As we are poſſeſſed of many uſeleſs Iſlands in thoſe Parts, which at preſent are of little or no Account to us, it is propoſed to cede ſome Portions thereof to the Danes, for a valuable Conſideration. On the other Hand, it is ſaid, this Journey will put the finiſhing Stroke to ſome recent Affairs, lately tranſacted on the Continent.

It is now ſaid the D. of B. takes the Lead in all Public Concerns.

A new Battalion, of 500 Men, is ordered to be immediately raiſed, and added to the Train of Artillery, which will cauſe a conſiderable Promotion in that Department.

A Proclamation is iſſued out in Dublin, for the new Parliament of Ireland, to meet the Firſt of Auguſt.

It is rumoured, that during a late private Negociation, a very conſiderable Poſt was offered conditionally to Three ſeveral Peral Perſonages, who thought proper to decline accepting it.

A Correſpondent ſays, "Who knows but that the Thirty Ships, fitting out by the Genoeſe, for the Service of France, may be employed in an Embarkation to invade Great-Britain, ſo ſoon as the French have ſubdued Corſica, which it ſeems is conſidered to be a preliminary Step?"

July 5. A certain Nobleman, who was lately offered a conſiderable Poſt in the Adminiſtration, is ſaid to have declared he will never accept any Place, in which, from the preſent Fluctuation of Affairs, he could only be conſidered as a Locum Tenens.

It is reported, that a Perſon of Diſtinction will be ſpeedily appointed to examine the State of the Baſon and Fortifications of Dunkirk.

It is reported, that the Reaſon why the French met with no Oppoſition at landing their Troops in Corſica, is, becauſe they only took Poſſeſſion of ſuch Places as were formerly occupied by the Genoeſe Troops, and have made no Attempts, whatever, to extend their Poſſeſſions any farther than the Genoeſe had before they took Leave of the Iſland. And it is ſtrongly aſſerted, by thoſe well acquainted in that Affair, no Hoſtility will be commenced, on the Part of his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Forces, unleſs firſt attacked by the Corſicans.

Portugueſe Gratitude is arrived to ſuch a Pitch, that as England has conſtantly aſſiſted them, in all Emergencies, they now deal with the French, and other Nations, in Preference to the Engliſh, for every Article with which thoſe Nations can ſupply them.

A Commiſſion is preparing to paſs the Great Seal, for appointing a new Board of the Commiſſioners of the Police in Scotland.

By ſome late Advices received from France, we are informed that the Proteſtant Religion daily gains great Ground in that Kingdom.

We hear that Orders are given for One of the Royal Yachts at Greenwich, to be in Readineſs to ſail for Holland, to bring over his Daniſh Majeſty, eſcorted by a Man of War.

We hear the Apartments in St. James's Palace lately occupied by his Serene Highneſs, the Prince of Brunſwick, will be ſuperbly fitted up, and ornamented for the Reception of his Majeſty, the King of Denmark.

It is reported the French Ambaſſador has fully juſtified, to the Satisfaction of our Miniſtry, the Proceeding of his Court, in regard to Corſica.

This Morning a Packet with Diſpatches, was ſent off from the Secretary of State's Office, in Cleveland-Row, St. James's, for his Excellency, Sir James Grey, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at Madrid.

It is rumoured, that we are upon the Point of commencing a ſerious Quarrel with a maritime State in the Mediterranean.

The Utrecht Gazette, under the Head London, June 14, has the following Article:—"Mr. Wilkes is not the only Object of the frequent Councils held at Court, and at which the King very often aſſiſts. The new Subjects of Complaint of the Americans, who obſtinately refuſe to ſubmit to the Impoſts laid on them in 1767; the ſending of the French Troops to Corſica; the Troubles which agitate Poland, are, among others, the great Objects which demand the Attention of the Miniſtry."

July 7. The Unſtableneſs of the Miniſtry, and the various Opinions that are now propagated by the intereſted, is more conſpicuous than ever, amongſt the Great. The quartering a certain great Perſon on the Shoulders of an old Placeman, is not eaſily digeſted; few People now-a-Days can bear voluntary Incumbrances, much leſs conſent to a Competitor in Office, or a Party in receiving the Emoluments.

We are informed that a Rupture has happened between Two Noblemen, which will open a Scene, in which the Public are deeply intereſted.

On Sunday Night, the Brother of a great Perſonage, paid a Viſit to Mr. Wilkes, in the King's-Bench.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, June 20.

"The Court hath received Advice, that the King's Troops deſtined for Corſica, continue to arrive there ſucceſſively; and that a Detachment having preſented itſelf before the Town of Bonifaccio, the Genoeſe Garriſon marched out, and embarked for Genoa. It is certain that theſe Proceedings are in conſequence of a Treaty between his Majeſty and the Republic; but what will be the Fate of the Corſican Malcontents, is unknown to the Public."

ANNAPOLIS, September 8.

By the Public Prints, from Virginia, it appears that there has been the moſt unjuſtifiable Riots in, and about Norfolk, occaſioned by ſome Gentlemen deſirous of having their Families inoculated for the Small-Pox. After ſeveral Meetings, for and againſt, it was agreed, that Inoculation ſhould be carried on at a Houſe belonging to Dr. Campbell, about Three Miles from Town; and, to prevent the Infection ſpreading, every Precaution was taken——notwithſtanding which, after the ſeveral Patients had been inoculated, and under a Courſe of Phyſic, (many of them Ladies, uſed to the moſt tender and delicate Treatment) a Number of Perſons armed, aſſembled, and ordered them away to a Peſt-Houſe, about Five Miles diſtant, not then cleanſed from the Filth and Stench occaſioned by a Parcel of new Negroes, who had been lodged there a little Time before, to be cured of the Small-Pox, Flux, and other epidemical Diſorders, incident to long Voyages——The above Diſtance, they had to walk in the Night, during a ſevere Guſt, and heavy Rain; neither could they have found the Road, had it not been for the Lightning, which was almoſt inceſſant. It is remarkable, that every Patient recovered.

We are informed, by a Gentleman from Norfolk, that the Mob have ſince burnt Dr. Campbell's Houſe to the Ground.

Laſt Week, at an Adjourned Court, held at Baltimore-Town, ſeveral of the Attornies practiſing in that County, unluckily left their Papers in the Court-Houſe, which were clandeſtinely taken away, on Thurſday Night. It is ſaid, that from the prudent Meaſures ſince purſued, Suitors, &c. will not ſuſtain any great Prejudice from this new invented Species of Villainy.

Yeſterday, Negro Sam was executed at the Gallows, near this City, purſuant to his Sentence: There were Two convicted; One of which his Excellency was pleaſed to pardon.

Death Warrants are gone up to Frederick County, againſt Dennis Igo, James Johnſon, and Joſeph Frampton, under Sentence, for Felony; as likewiſe to Dorcheſter County, againſt Negro Daniel, for the ſame Crime.

Since our laſt, ſailed from this Port, the Snow Sally, Capt. Thomas Smith, for London.

Upper-Marlborough, Auguſt 29, 1768.

THE Subſcriber intending to quit Store-keeping, at the above Place, will diſpoſe of the Goods, now on Hand, for Tobacco, Bills of Exchange, or Caſh. The Goods were moſtly landed in May laſt, and there is yet a good Aſſortment of Summer and Winter Goods.

September 1, 1768.

TEN POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the Subſcriber, in Loudoun County, on the Night of the 30th of Auguſt laſt, Two Convict Servant Men, both Blackſmiths by Trade.

JOHN BENHAM, 28 Years of Age, 5 Feet 5 Inches high, ſtoops in his Shoulders, has a very hoarſe Voice, is ſlender made, and his Hair cut off, has a Scar or two in his Neck, which he ſays was by Shot; and was cloathed in Oſnabrig.

JOHN MILLER, 28 Years of Age, 5 Feet 2 Inches high, a thick-ſett, Fellow, and wears his own Hair; has a large Scar in his Forehead, has been in the Country before, talks much, and very impudent, and is the moſt deceitful Fellow I ever knew, is very capable of deceiving by his Polaver: He was dreſt in Oſnabrig, and had on a Felt Hat. 'Tis likely they will change their Dreſs, as they were endeavouring to ſteal Cloaths the Night they went away. They are the Two Servants that run away laſt May, from me, and advertiſed in the ſeveral Gazettes of the ſeveral adjoining Colonies. They were then taken up in Maryland; and, I am ſatisfied, they will endeavour to get on board ſome Veſſel, ſo as to get a Paſſage home, or to the Weſt-Indies; ſo Maſters of Veſſels are cautioned not to entertain them. They had each of them large Steel Collars about their Necks, but poſſibly will get them off. Whoever takes them up, and delivers, or cauſes them to be delivered, at my Houſe, in the ſaid County, ſhall receive the above Reward, or FIVE POUNDS for either, if taken ſeperate, paid by (3w) WILLIAM CARR LANE.

The Owner may have him again, on proving Property, and paying Charges.

Auguſt 28, 1768.

STOLEN out of the Subſcriber's Paſture, on the Night of the 8th of Auguſt, a very likely dun HORSE, 4 Years old, about 14 Hands high, branded on the near Shoulder and Buttock, R, it is very plain to be ſeen; He had on a Pair of Leather Spancels, which was carried off with him: He is a Horſe of great Spirit, and it is ſuppoſed he is carried up the Country.

Whoever takes up ſaid Horſe, and brings him to the Subſcriber, living within Two Miles of Port-Tobacco, ſhall have One Piſtole Reward, paid by RICHARD GAMBRA.

THE little Regard that has been paid to repeated Notice given, in this GAZETTE, by Perſons indebted to the late Mr. Jonas Green, requeſting them to ſettle, and pay off their reſpective Balances, makes it incumbent on me, to aſſure them, without Diſtinction, that, however diſagreeable to myſelf, yet, in Juſtice to his Creditors, I am determined to take every legal Step, to obtain a Settlement of about Twelve Hundred Open Accounts, many of which have been ſo long ſtanding, that, if immediately paid, the Injury ſuſtained, by lying out of the Money, without Intereſt, is more than adequate to any Profit ariſing from the Articles charged. Perſons having ſuch Accounts, cannot take it amiſs, if I ſhould print a Supplement, as many of them do not now take the GAZETTE, and inſert a Liſt of their Names, and Sums due, which will enable their Neighbours and my Friends, to expoſtulate with them, probably convince them, of the abſolute Neceſſity of ſettling their Accounts; and, if they cannot pay immediately, they ought to paſs their Notes, for the juſt Balances due. Such a Conduct would enable the Subſcriber to ſatisfy every juſt Claim againſt the Deceaſed.

ANNE CATHARINE GREEN, Adminiſtratrix.

☞ We requeſt the Favour of ſuch of our Cuſtomers as may have omitted to ſettle for the preceding Year ending at No. 1170, being the 10th Day of February laſt, to give us their Aſſiſtance, annually, and thoſe who have, not any Intention of paying regularly, we hope will favour us with a Line, incloſing the Neceſſal to that Date.

THE PRINTERS.

 Advertiſements ſent to the PRINTING-OFFICE by Non-Subſcribers, will not be inſerted, unleſs the Money is incloſed and Poſtage paid.
